Chairman McConville and others from the Democratic state headquarters went to Cincinnati te-night to confer with Mr. John R. McLean and other party leaders regarding the contests that are to be made in the close countles.

Chairman Nach insists to-night that Chairman Nash insists to-night that the legislature stands 75 Republicans to 70 Democrats, and the majority on joint ballot for senator will not be less than five. He says he is to-night satisfied with the situation in Wood county. What he feared was that the official count might wipe out the small Republican plurality in that county. Since the face of the official taily sheets shows a plu-rality of 31 for the Republican represen-tative, Judge Nash says says he is will-ing and ready to have any court pass on anive, Judge Anas says says he is winng and ready to have any court pass on

THE TROUBLE IN WOOD.

Two Democratic Members Refuse to Sign

COLUMBUS, Nov. 5 .- Information was received at the state headquarters of both parties this afternoon that the Republicans claimed the election of their representative in Wood county by 28 and the Democrats claimed their representative had a plurality of 14. When the oard of elections took its noon recess at Howling Green the two Democratic members of the board of elections refused to sign the official canvass of the vote of Wood county unless the vote of one precinct in Center township was thrown out. The vote of this precinct makes a difference of forty-two votes on the Wood county representative. If, it is counted the Republican representative will have a plurality of 28 and if it thrown out the Democratic representative will have a plurality of 14. The county seat (Bowline) viing Green the two Democratic memolurality of 14. The voting place is in the proper township but not within the precinct, and it has been in the same place for five years without the legality of the location ever being questioned be-fore. Congressman Burton of Cleve-land, and other attorneys for the Repub-licans, have prepared their mandamus licans, have prepared their mandamus case and will go before the circuit court

The Republican counsel claim that no county beards of election have any power to go behind the returns, and that the face of the returns give their representative a plurality of 28. In the event of the court not granting the order it seems probable that the Republican member from Wood county would be seen in as the Republicans have a trajectly of six in the house without Wood Jorliy of six in the house without Wook county. The official returns from Dela-ware county sive the Republican repre-mentative a plurality of 30 instead of 35 as claimed last night.

It is learned here to-night that counse for both the Democratic and the Repub lican committees at Bowling Green to day agreed to submit the Wood count case at once to the circuit couri and '! lawyers on both eldes went to Toledo fo that purpose. The court will be aske to deelde whether the election board ca go behind the returns. Of course

Information has been received at Republican headquarters of profests to the ground that the voting precincts were should be thrown out the Democrats

At Republican state headquarters the reports have never received any credence. They state that if they are assured of a safe majority on joint bullot, they have no doubt or concern as to what that majority will do.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 5.—The Evening News (Ind. Dem.) to-day publishes a report to the effect that one of the Democratic supervisors of election in Somerset county refuses to sign the returns from that county, thus making returns from that county, thus making it possible for the Republicans to lose the three members of the legislature who were elected from that county on Tuesday list. The report has caused considerable uneasiness at Republican state headquarters, although the Republicans will be able to organize the house without Somerset county's vote. house without somerset county's vote.

Murray Vandiver, chairman of the face of the returns and added that he was convinced of their correctness.

PRINCESS ANNE, Md., Nov. 5.— There is serious legal controversy among the supervisors of elections of Somerset county over the vote cast on Tuesday, J. S. Stanford, Democratic member, having refused to sign the cer-tificate of election because of certain irregularities in the tally sheets and ballots, in that the judges of election in several instances failed to sign the former, and that at least five hundred of the latter were counted, in spite of the fact that they were not endorsed with the initials of one of the judges as required by law. required by law.

The Republican supervisors, upon advice of counsel, decided to disregard these apparent irregularities, whereup vice of counsel, decided to wheat, whereupon Mr. Stanford, who had been elected secretary of the board, withdrew. The other two then reorganized the board and issued subpoenas to the judges and clerks of various precincts to appear them on Monday to make the necessary corrections in the tally sheets. Mr. Stanford, thereupon entered a protest, claiming that the whole course of the board is illegal and the question is likely to be taken into court where an attempt may be made to throw out the unmarked ballots and reverse the result of the late election, in which event the four assemblymen and one senator from Somerset may go into the Democratic instead of the Republican column.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—Hon. F. Scott, formerly of Parkersburg, West Virginia, was the recipient of numerous congratulations upon his appointment this afternoon as police judge of the District of Columbia. As has been stated in the Intelligencer, the death of Judge Miller, of the United States branch of the police court created a vacancy which had to be filled at once, the business of the court being more than one judge can conveniently handle. Hence it was that steps were at once taken to acquaint the President with the situation and urge him to hasten the choice of a successor to the late with the situation and urge him to hasten the choice of a successor to the late incumbent.

Judge Scott's friends moved immediately in his behalf. He had at his back Justices Cole and McCombs, of the district supreme court, Hon. A. A. Birney, former United States district attorney, Mr. Tracy L. Jeffords, former assistant district attorney, Colonel M. M. Parker, Republican national committeeman for the district, Judge Jers. Wilson, and numerous others of the district bar. The commander of George J. Meade post of the G. A. R., of which Judge Scott is a member, in addition to others of the same order, was warmly endorsed by Senator Elkins and the Republican representatives in Congress from West Virginia.

A delegation called upon President McKinley to-day in Judge Scott's interest. It preceded a similar delegation for another candidate, and there were influences at work for yet other aspirants, one of whom was an Ohio man, said to be endorsed by Senator Hanna.

It may be remarked that Judge Scott was himself a good enough Ohio man to get influential support from that was himself a good enough Ohlo man to get influential support from that state, and when he had been heard the President directed Attorney General McKenna to make out a commission for C. F. Scott, which was done, and the same delivered this afternoon with the big seal attached. It is said President McKinley's long acquaintance with the West Virginia man prompted him to say that it gave him much pleasure to confer the appointment upon him, and that he was the more pleased after hearing the testimony as to his qualifications from those who knew the requirements of the position.

Judge Scott will assume the duties Monday. He has but one day in which to wind up the business of his office as justice of the peace. The new position pays $2,000 per annum.

Appointments went West Virginia's way to-day. Dr. Daniel Mayer, of Charleston, being designated as the representative of this country at Buenos Ayres, Argentine. new phase of the Bering Sea negotiations developed to-day, when the state department was advised that Sir Wilfrid Laurier, premier of Canada, and Sir Louis Davies, minister of marine and fisheries in the Laurier cabinet, would come here early next week to take part in the negotiations. Later in the day a dispatch from Ottawa reserved apartments for Sir Wilfrid and Sir Louis and party at the Shoreham served apartments for Sir Wilfrid and Sir Louis and party at the Shoreham, beginning next Tuesday evening. The British embassy was not advised, however, and it was understood that the British foreign office was equally unaware of the fact that the chief officials of Canada would come to Washington to treat in person on the subject.

Up to this time the British authorities had strenuously insisted that the Bering Sea meeting was to be confined strictly to an exchange of technical information between "experts," and they have resisted any larger consideration of the subject which would involve general principles. Lord Salisbury's letter to Secretary Sherman carefully limited the meeting to one of "experts" and nexceution of this, Professor Thomas was named as the British expert and Professor Macoun as the expert of Canada. Notwithstanding this strict limitation adopted at London, the two chief officials of Canada will come to Washington prepared to discuss the subject from a much broader standpoint than any thus far conceded in London. How far they will be able to treat concerning Bering Sea, reciprocity or other subjects is a question of interesting conjecture. The state department is much gratified at their coming as it is felt to offer the first prospect of considering the sealing question on broader lines than heretofore.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is regarded as the head of that element in Canada favorable to the most cordial relations with the United States. The Liberal party, of which he is the leader, came into power on the issue of closer commercial relations with the United States. The Liberal party, of which he is the leader, came into power on the issue of closer commercial relations with the United States. mercial relations with the United States. The Conservative party resisted this as tending toward the annexation of Canada to the United States and as disloyal to the mother country. Sir Wilfrid has not been an annexationist, but has favored the most liberal trade arrangement with the United States. Heretofore his efforts and those of his party associates, toward securing a reciprocity treaty with the United States have been unavailing, but within the last few days the state department has intimated that it would view with favor negotiations for reciprocity between Canada and the United States. The coming of Sir Wilfrid at this time is therefore of more than usual interest, not only in its bearing on Bering Sea negotiations, but also in connection with Canadian reciprocity.

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.-R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade will say

Stronger proof of the great change in the condition of business could not be given than is found in the detailed report of failures of branches of business for the month of October. Though swelled by a few large speculative or brokerage failures, the aggregate was smaller than in any other month for more than four years, except in July and August and one month in 1894. The manufacturing and trading failures, manufacturing and trading failures, $7,833,199, against $7,830,811 in September and $7,760,835 in August, include one for $1,000,000, having no relation to the present state of business. During the four years from manufacturing failures have not been smaller except in one month, leather and shoes and unclassified manufacturing, except in four months and cotton manufacturing except in six months. Of trading classes, failures have never been smaller in groceries, jewelry and books except in groceries, jewelry and books except in mone month, in clothing, furniture and unclassified trading except in two months, and ten manufacturing and eleven trading classes out of fourteen each have reported smaller failures in a third of the past forty-eight months. ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION

Of the President of the Republic of Brazii-Nephew of the President Slightly Wounded, and Minister of War Stabbed and Killed.

LONDON, Nov. 6 -- A dispatch to the Pimes from Rio Janeiro, says:

At 1 o'clock this afternoon (Friday) a soldier of the Tenth battalion, which constitutes part of the local garrison attempted to shoot President Moraes with a pistol. The president was just leaving the marine arsenal after visiting the steamer on which General James Bosa, minister of marine, had returned from Bahia.

The by-standers frustrated the attempt, but Colonel Moraes, the president's nephew, was slightly wounded in disarming the soldier. General Betancourt, minister of war, then interfered and was himself stabbed. The wound was so serious that he died soon afterward. The attack has caused greatest agitation throughout the city.

HELLO, WEYLER!

How Do You Like the Prospect Before Yout-The "Butcher" May Now Know How It Feels to be Court-martisled.

MADRID, Nov. 6.-The Spanish govrnment, as a result of the deliberations General Weyler, the former captain-general of Cubs, has come to the decision to try him by court martial, no matter where he lands, if he confirms the accu-ances.

The commanding officers at all ports of the Spanish kingdom have been instructed to demand of General Weyler the moment he can be comunicated with, the exact terms of the speech which he delivered in reply to the manifestation at Havana upon the occasion of his embarkation for Spain on Sunday.

HAVANA, Nov. 5.—No further news was received here to-day regarding the Spanish steamer Montserrat, having General Weyler, the former captain general of Cuba on board, which put into Gibara, province of Santiago de Cuba, for repairs to her machinery, while on her way from this port to Spain via Porto Rico.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—It appears that the determination of the Spanish cabinet to court martial General Weyler. cabinet to court martial General Weyler, while not directly due to a request of this government was probably inspired by an intimation from the state department that his utterances were not calculated to smooth the way of negotiations. It is surmised that by thus acting with promptness the Spanish cabinet has paved the way for a counter-remonstrance against the publications of exUnited States Minister Hamis Taylor. The conditions in the two cases, however, are said at the state department to be entirely different. General Weyler bing a Spanish army officer is amendable to discipline for any interference with the policy of the government, while Mr. Taylor being a private citizen is not accountable to his government for his individual utterances. dividual utterances.

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail, commenting on the difficulties that contront the Spanish government says:

"General Weyler has a large enough following among officers of the army, owing to promotion or for other reasons, in sympathy with him, to make both the Republicans and Carlist parties endeavor to compromise with him in order to obtain his support. The government would be glad to give liberty of action to demonstrations in his favor with a view to guaging the extent of his popularity, but it fears disturbance of the public peace.

mitted. The verdict of the jury had doomed the prisoner to death. The trial excited the greatest interest in the town of Ripley, and the cours house was crowded, as it had never been before, by a throng of citizens who showed their interest in the matter by a storm of applause when the verdict of the jury was read.

Among the witnesses examined was Miss Alice Pfost, who was the only one of the family who escaped instant death at the hand of the find, but who had her skull crushed and her physicians say probably cannot recover.

She was led into the court room amid the most profound silence, and in a very weak voice told the harrowing story of the foul crime. Her story had a marked effect upon the jury.

The case was conducted for the state by Prosecuting Attorney James A. Sleman, while D. A. Brown represented the defendant. The detense was that Morgan was insane, but was rather weak. Morgan throughout the trial maintained the appearance of stolldity and indifference, which not once relaxed.

Judge Blizzard will probably sentence Morgan to-morrow morning.

Had any other than a verdict of death

Had any other than a verdict of death been returned it is not probable that the prisoner would have lived through the night, as the mob was ready to take him at little notice. It was only by strong effort on the part of Sheriff Shinn that Morgan was not lynched on Thursday night.

It develops that Morgan is not the right name of the prisoner, his real name being Raines. His mother kept house for a man named Morgan, of whom his father became jealous and killed, for which he in turn was killed by a member of Morgan's family.
